SUBJECT: Intelligence Support Requested by the Civil Defense Administration

1. The Central Intelligence Agency has been approached by the Civil Defense Administration with a request for intelligence support.

a. Estimates on the probability of attack against the U.S. or its possessions.

b. Intelligence on the type of weapons that would be employed in any attack on the U.S. and the destructive nature of such weapons.

c. Intelligence on the civil defense measures being taken by other nations.

In addition Civil Defense would like from time to time to receive comments on their planning assumptions.

2. The CIA recommends that the Intelligence Advisory Committee agree to give the CDA the intelligence support requested above, and that CDA work out the necessary arrangements individually with each IAC agency.
